SCHOOL COMPLAINTS PROCEDURES

SCHOOL COMPLAINTS PROCEDURES -CONTEXT

The School Standards and Framework Act 1998 requires schools to establish a formal complaints procedure. The procedure must make provision for complaints from different categories of person i.e. governors, parents, guardians, pupils and the general public. This guidance document suggests a four-stage complaints procedure to manage complaints from parents, guardians and members of the general public starting with an informal stage for concerns and ending with an appeal to the governing body. The first stage deals with concerns which have the potential to be managed by the majority of the staff during the course of their duties. Complaints dealt with at stage 2 will either be managed by the Headteacher or a senior member of staff. When a formal complaint arises and is not dealt with to the satisfaction of the complainant, it will first be addressed by the Headteacher at stage 3, if they have not been involved at stage 2, then subsequently by the governing body at stage 4.

Section 29 of the Education Act 2002 requires governing bodies of all maintained schools and nursery schools in England to have in place by 1 September 2003 a procedure to deal with complaints. Governors may wish to refer to the DfES document, School Complaints Procedure LEA/0180/2003 when reviewing their current documentation.

In formalising their complaints procedure governing bodies need to be aware that they may need to have a response mechanism to urgent or serious complaints about the Headteacher or a senior staff member, a member or the Chair of the Governing Body and have appropriate provision in place (see stage 4 Guidelines for a committee of governors dealing with complaints).

Complaints not covered by the procedure

The procedure does not apply to complaints which fall to be dealt with under other statutory provisions. Complaints regarding the curriculum, sex education, admissions, exclusions or SEN, all of which are already subject to separate statutory processes. Staff grievance and capability proceedings along with child protection investigations are also outside the process.

The range of complaints

Concerns raised are likely to be wide ranging and varied and could include complaints concerning:

- child's lack of progress at school
- disagreements over school policy e.g. homework
- health and safety issues, cleanliness of facilities and state of repair
- inappropriate discipline
- individual teacher's actions or attitudes toward a parent or pupil

- lack of effective action e.g. over bullying
- playground supervision
- racist behaviour
- sexual harassment
- teacher's failure to keep order
- unfair treatment of child

A suggested working definition of a complaint would be “A clear statement of dissatisfaction of a service provided or requested”.

This would arise if a concern was not dealt with to the satisfaction of the complainant at stage one. It is vital that parents are aware of the procedure for raising concerns and all staff are primed to respond appropriately.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF THE PROCEDURE

Publicity (for parents, guardians and members of the public)

Parents and guardians are made aware of how they can raise a concern or lodge a formal complaint. The school's complaints procedure is easily accessible, easy to understand and well publicised.

A copy of this policy is included in our school prospectus and is available on our school website.

If you require a copy of our policy in a language other than English, Braille or large print please contact the School office to provide this for you.

Timescale

The procedures will address the complaints as speedily as possible and be consistent with fairness to all concerned. At the first stage many concerns will be dealt with and resolved immediately. Where a concern cannot be dealt with immediately, the staff member dealing with the issue will note a response date for the complainant and will record it to ensure a reply is communicated. The response date sets a time limit to respond appropriately. If a decision cannot be communicated within the deadline, a letter will be written to the complainant indicating a date by which a decision will be made.

Support for Complainant

It is important for any complainant to know where they can go for information, advice and advocacy. Support will be offered from individuals and organisations who are clearly separate from those complained against, such as Parents' Advice Centres, Citizens Advice Bureaux, Community Relations Councils, refugee support organisations etc. or if appropriate LEA education officers such as from Education Social Welfare Service, Principal Officer Customer Care. 3 Parents or others raising concerns or complaints will be made aware that if they consider it appropriate they are welcome to be accompanied by a friend, a relative or a representative at any stage of the procedure.

Support for a person complained against

Staff who may be questioned as part of a complaints procedure investigation should feel they are being treated in a fair way and that they too will have an opportunity to present their case. They will be informed about the procedure and of progress. A crucial balance will be maintained between supporting the individual so that his/her rights and reputation are protected, and investigating a complaint thoroughly and impartially.

The complaints procedure is distinct from formal disciplinary proceedings for staff. There may be occasions where a complaint launches a disciplinary procedure which puts the complaints procedure on hold. If so, the complainant will be informed of this and any non-disciplinary aspects of the complaint will be dealt with by the usual complaints procedures; the complainant will be "up-dated" on likely further delays to a response. It may be clear after the disciplinary procedures have been completed that particular responses to the complainant are required.

Confidentiality

Conversations and correspondence will be treated with the utmost discretion. It is vitally important that complainants feel confident that their complaint will not penalise their child. However, from the outset all parties to a complaint will need to be aware that some information may have to be shared with others involved in the operation of the complaints procedure. Headteachers and members of the senior management team may feel it appropriate to be accompanied by another member of staff when dealing with some complaints. Complainants will be made aware that a written record will be maintained of all meetings as part of the procedure.

Anonymous Complaints

It is usually proper to disregard anonymous complaints unless somebody is prepared to substantiate them, but the danger in this is that they may relate to something quite serious. If the unforeseen eventuality occurs, to the detriment of the school, the complainant may subsequently make themselves known and say that s/he alerted the school even though the complaint was unsigned. It will be at the Headteacher or Governing Body's discretion to decide whether the gravity of an anonymous complaint warrants an investigation.

Redress

If the outcome of the complaint procedure shows the school is at fault, redress in the form of an acknowledgement that the complaint is valid will be provided. Alternatively, it may be appropriate to offer one or more of: an apology, an explanation, a promise that the event complained of will not recur, an undertaking to review school policies or practices in the light of the complaint, or, in appropriate circumstances, financial compensation. Fear of litigation will not prevent our school from admitting when mistakes have been made, but advice will be sought from the Authority's Risk and Insurance Section if financial compensation is being sought or if litigation is a possibility.

Staff Awareness and Training

School staff, including non-teaching staff, will be familiar with the procedures so that they can advise complainants about the process. There may be a great many staff involved in handling complaints. Clear information about the procedures, reassurances that senior staff are committed to the procedures and some basic training in the practical interpersonal skills needed in dealing with people who are upset or angry will be provided through access to this policy and the appropriate training.

Should the complainant act aggressively or in an unreasonable manner the complaints procedure will be delayed. All staff are issued with the advice contained in the LEA policy and guidance document H003/94 'Violence at work' This information is within the Health & Safety Policy.

Record Keeping

As complaints may contribute to raising the quality of education, they need to be recorded and monitored termly by senior staff and reported to the governors where appropriate. Recording will begin at the point when a concern has become a complaint that can not be resolved on the spot but needs investigation and/or consultation with others in the school and will require a later report back (either orally, or in writing) to the complainant. The Headteacher requires that all complaints notified to them.

Recording at the earliest stage needs only be a very basic record of the complaint, giving the date, name of complainant and general nature of the complaint. A pro forma for comments and complaints is used.

THE COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

STAGE 1 - CONTEXT

- 1.1 The vast majority of concerns and complaints SHOULD be resolved informally. There are many occasions where concerns are resolved straight away through the class teacher or office staff or Headteacher, depending on whom the complainant first approached.
- 1.2 Complainants should feel able to raise concerns with members of staff without any formality, either in person, by telephone or in writing.
- 1.3 At first it may be unclear whether a complainant is asking a question or expressing an opinion rather than making a complaint. A complainant may want a preliminary discussion about an issue to help decide whether he or she wishes to take the issue further.

Procedure at Stage 1

- 1.4 Complainants will be offered an opportunity to discuss their concern with the appropriate member of staff designated to deal with the situation who will clarify with the complainant the nature of the concern, and reassure them that the school wants to hear about it. The member of staff may be able to explain to the complainant how the situation happened. At this point what sort of outcome the complainant is looking for will be identified.
- 1.5 If the member of staff first contacted cannot immediately deal with the matter, s/he will make a clear note of the date, name, contact address or phone number and a brief note on the nature of the complaint.
- 1.6 All members of staff will know how to refer on a concern, if necessary, to the person with responsibility for the particular issue raised by the complainant. S/he will check later to make sure that the referral has been successful.
- 1.7 The Headteacher may decide to deal with a concern directly at this stage.
- 1.8 If the concern relates to the Headteacher, the complainant will be advised to contact the Chair of the Governing Body, giving them details of how to do so.
- 1.9 The staff member dealing with the concern will make sure that the complainant is clear what action (if any) or monitoring of the situation has been agreed, putting this in writing only if this seems the best way of making things clear. A note will be made of the action and retained.

1.10 Where no satisfactory solution has been found within a maximum of 15 school days, complainants will be asked if they wish their concern to be considered further. If they do then they will be given clear information, both orally and in writing, about how to proceed and about any independent advice available to them.

STAGE 2 - CONTEXT

- 2.1 At stage 2 it has become clear that the concern is a definite complaint. In some cases the Headteacher or senior member of staff will already have been involved in looking at the matter; in others it is his/her first involvement. In either case, it is helpful for the Headteacher (or the person delegated to investigate) to use guidelines to ensure consistency among cases, and to make sure that nothing happens at this stage which could make it difficult for later stages to proceed smoothly.
- 2.2 The Headteacher has the responsibility for the day-to-day management of the school, they also have responsibility for the implementation of the complaints procedure, including the decisions about their own involvement at various stages. One of the reasons for having various "stages" in a complaints procedure is to reassure complainants that their grievance may be heard by more than one person.

Procedure at Stage 2

- 2.3 The Headteacher (or designate) acknowledges the complaint in writing, within a maximum of 3 school days of receiving the complaint, confirming the exact nature of the complaint. The acknowledgement will give a brief explanation of the school's complaint procedure and a target date for providing a response to the complaint. This will be within 15 school days, if this proves impossible, a letter will be sent explaining the reason for the delay and giving a revised target date for a response if possible.
- 2.4 The Headteacher (or designate) will provide an opportunity for the complainant to meet him/her to supplement any information provided previously. It will be made clear to the complainant that if s/he wishes, s/he may be accompanied to any meeting by a friend, relative, representative, or advocate who can speak on his or her behalf; and that interpreting facilities are available if needed.
- 2.5 If necessary, the Headteacher (or designate) will interview witnesses and take signed statements from witnesses and those involved. If the complaint concerns a pupil, the pupil identified will be interviewed. The pupil will preferably be interviewed with another member of staff present and in the case of a serious complaint with their parents present.

- 2.6 The Headteacher (or designate) will keep a written record of interviews, telephone conversations, and other documentation.
- 2.7 Once all the relevant facts have been established, the Headteacher (or designate) will then produce a written response to the complainant, or meet the complainant to discuss/resolve the matter directly.
- 2.8 A written response will include a full explanation of the decision and the reasons for it. Where appropriate, this will include what action the school will take to resolve the complaint. The complainant will be advised that if s/he wishes to take the complaint further s/he will notify the Chair of the Governing Body within a maximum of 10 school days of receiving the outcome letter.
- 2.9 If a complaint is against the action of the Headteacher, the Chair of the Governing Body will carry out all the Stage 2 procedures.

STAGE 3 - CONTEXT

This stage in the procedure follows Stage 2 where the earlier stage has been investigated by a senior member of staff other than the Headteacher.

If the complainant is not content with the decision reached by the designate in response to their complaint they can then refer the matter to the Headteacher. An agreed period of time for this to take place is within a maximum of 15 school days.

The Headteacher will endeavour to resolve any complaint referred to them at this stage and will arrange a meeting with the complainant as soon as practical. The meeting will offer an opportunity to reassess all the issues, discuss any further findings from the Headteacher's investigation, clarify the action to be taken by the school and all the complainants worries in order to seek reconciliation.

In some circumstances it will be appropriate to invite the LA to act as conciliator.

Should the complainant still be dissatisfied they will be directed to put their complaint in writing to the Chair of Governors.

STAGE 4 - CONTEXT

- 3.1 Upon receipt of a written complaint appropriate to this stage of the procedure or where a complainant appeals against the decision of the Headteacher (Stage 2 of the procedure) within an agreed period, within a maximum of 15 school days of receipt of the decision letter, the Headteacher WILL notify the Chair of Governors so that a review can be instituted.
- 3.2 The Clerk to the Governing Body will write to the complainant to acknowledge the Chair of Governors has received a written request for a review. The letter will explain that the complainant has the right to submit any further documents relevant to the complaint. These will be made available immediately so that they can be circulated to all committee members.

- 3.3 The committee of the Governing Body will set a timetable for the investigation and will communicate the timetable to the complainant.
- 3.4 The Clerk to the Governors will arrange to convene the Complaints Committee elected from members of the Governing Body.
- 3.5 The Complaints Committee members are governors who will have had no prior involvement with the complaint. If s/he has not previously been involved, the Chair of the Governing Body will chair the committee; otherwise the Vice-Chair will do so. It is not appropriate for the Headteacher to have a place on this committee.
- 3.6 The Chair/Vice Chair will ensure that the complaint is heard by the committee within a maximum of 20 school days of receiving the letter. All relevant correspondence regarding the complaint will be made available to the committee members at least 5 school days before the hearing.
- 3.7 The Chair/Vice-Chair will write and inform the complainant, Headteacher, any relevant witnesses, and members of the committee at least 5 school days in advance, of the date, time and place of the meeting. The notification to the complainant will inform him/her of the right to be accompanied to the meeting by a friend/advocate/interpreter. The letter will also explain how the meeting will be conducted and the complainant's right to submit further written evidence to the committee.
- 3.8 The Chair/Vice-Chair of the Governing Body will invite the Headteacher to attend the committee meeting and prepare a written report for the committee in response to the complaint. The Headteacher will also invite members of staff directly involved in matters raised by the complainant to respond in writing or in person to the complaint. Any relevant documents including the Headteacher's report will be received by all concerned – including the complainant – at least 5 school days prior to the meeting.
- 3.9 The involvement of staff other than the Headteacher is subject to the discretion of the Chair of the committee.
- 3.10 It is the responsibility of the Chair of the committee to ensure that the meeting is properly minuted.
- 3.11 The aim of the meeting is to resolve the complaint and achieve a reconciliation between the school and the complainant. It may only be possible to establish facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has been taken seriously.

- 3.12 The committee will remember that many complainants are unused to dealing with groups of people in formal situations and may feel inhibited when speaking to the committee. The Chair of the committee should therefore ensure that the proceedings are as informal as possible.
- 3.13 If either party intends to introduce previously undisclosed evidence or witnesses, it is in the interests of natural justice to adjourn the meeting so that the other side has time to consider and respond to the new evidence.
- 3.14 The meeting will allow for
- the complainant to explain their complaint and the Headteacher to explain the school's response
 - the Headteacher to question the complainant about the complaint and the complainant to question the Headteacher and/or other members of staff (if invited to be present by the Chair of the committee) about the school's response
 - committee members to have an opportunity to question both the complainant and the Headteacher
 - any party to have the right to call witnesses (subject to the approval of the Chair) and all parties having the right to question all the witnesses
 - final statements by both the complainant and the Headteacher.
- 3.15 The Chair of the committee will explain to the complainant and the Headteacher that the committee will consider its decision, and a written decision will be sent to both parties within a maximum of 15 school days. The complainant, Headteacher, other members of staff and witnesses will then leave.
- 3.16 The committee will then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented and
- reach a unanimous, or at least a majority, decision on the complaint and
 - decide upon the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint and
 - where appropriate, suggest recommended changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not happen again.
- 3.17 A written statement outlining the decision of the committee will be sent to the complainant and the Headteacher within 5 school days.
- 3.18 The chair will ensure that parents are aware that they can complain to the Ombudsman (in rare circumstances but particularly in relation to admissions) or the Secretary of State for Education and Employment if they are unhappy with the outcome of the review.

- 3.19 The school will ensure that a copy of all correspondence and notes are kept on file in the school's records.

Complaints concerning the teacher/s with responsibility for investigating Complaints

Where a complaint concerns in whole or part the conduct of the teacher responsible for investigating complaints, the teacher will, on receipt of the formal complaint, immediately refer the matter to the Headteacher.

The Headteacher will either designate another member of staff to act as the teacher with responsibility for investigating the complaint, or s/he may her/himself may deal with the complaint.

Complaints concerning the Headteacher, a Governor or the Governing Body

In these cases the Chair of the Governing Body will investigate the complaint.

The complainant can appeal against the decision of the Chair within a maximum of 15 school days of receipt of the decision letter. The Governing Body can either delegate the appeal to the complaints committee, or may, where they think it appropriate, appoint 3 other governors to form a complaints panel to investigate and make a recommendation by majority decision to the Governing Body.

Complaints concerning the Chair of Governors

A senior member of staff or Headteacher, upon receiving a formal complaint against the Chair, must notify the clerk, who must then table the complaint at an extraordinary meeting of the Governing Body. The Chair will withdraw from any discussion. The Governing Body may either decide to refer the matter to the LA or refer the complaint to the Complaints Committee of the governing body.

Withdrawal of Complaints

Formal complaints may be withdrawn at any stage by notice in writing.

Complaints by members of the Governing Body and pupils

Governing Bodies shall establish such procedures, as they feel appropriate for dealing with complaints from members of the Governing Body and pupils. A complaint by a governor may be discussed at a full meeting of the Governing Body. A Governing Body can delegate the responsibility of managing complaints by pupils to the professionals. Pupils need to know clearly how they can register their complaint and they need assurance that it will be dealt with expediently.

Complaints Procedure

Is publicised in the school prospectus, available on the website and made widely known to parents at induction meetings of new pupils etc. Our complaints procedure follows LA guidelines.

Complaints Register

A register of all formal complaints made under the complaints procedure will be maintained. The register includes the following:

- name and address of the complainant
- a brief description of the complaint
- a record of the time taken to resolve the matter
- the outcome of the complaint.

COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

Role

The committee has the power to make decisions on behalf of the governing body and may

- uphold the complaint
- uphold it in part, or
- dismiss it

Where the issue under consideration does not fall within the remit of the committee, the members may still wish to make recommendations. A Complaints Committee is appointed at the Governing Body meeting in the Autumn Term. The composition of this Committee is considered carefully. Dealing with any complaints that reach this stage is likely to be challenging but careful planning early on avoids unnecessary complications. Consideration of the following is crucial:

Membership

Any Complaint Committee members will not have had previous significant involvement with the complaint under review.

Whoever is appointed will be prepared to attend any meeting at short notice.

Three governors (excluding the Headteacher) form the Complaints Committee. Substitutes will be appointed to take the place of any committee member who might be unavailable. The minutes of the Autumn Term governors' meeting will show exactly who will be called for a meeting and in what order.

Chair

Where possible the Governing Body will appoint a Chair for the Complaints Committee at the same time as they decide on the membership of the committee. This avoids uncertainty all round and allows the Chair of the committee to take control of the situation before the meeting as well as during and after it. This is essential for a successful outcome. Previous experience of chairing a meeting is preferable. Governors will be aware that these meetings can be difficult and that the unexpected frequently occurs.

Clerk

The clerk will draw up the agenda and make all the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE MEETING

Before a meeting

A copy of the agenda, the complaint, and any written response from the Headteacher will be sent to Complaints Committee members and the Chair of Governors at least five school days before the meeting. Each member will immediately read the papers to check that they have no significant involvement with the case under consideration, and not discuss it with anyone else. If they need to withdraw from the committee the clerk will organise a substitute. It is essential to withdraw at this stage so that a substitute can be arranged.

Practical arrangements

The tone of the meeting is often set by what happens when the complainant first arrives, therefore it is worth the Chair considering the following:

What time will participants be asked to arrive?

Who will greet participants when they arrive?

Will anyone wait with them?

Where will other people wait? (Separate places for complainants and school representatives may be advisable).

Will there be any refreshments provided?

Where will the meeting take place?

How will the meeting room be arranged? (Small informal arrangements are usually best)

What route will the complainant and school representatives take to the meeting room?

The meeting

The Observatory School model agenda is attached. The same rules apply as for other committee meetings of governors. For example, governors are not bound to accept tabled papers and may adjourn if they feel that they need time to consider an unexpected issue, including procedural issues.

Chair's role

During the meeting

- Take control of the meeting with confidence; use their judgement to move the meeting on when necessary and aim towards a resolution by coming to a conclusion on the written and oral evidence presented at the meeting.
- Convey to all concerned that as Chair you are acting impartially by treating all participants even handedly.
- The complainant and the Headteacher (with their friends/advocates) will be invited in and asked to leave together.

- At the discretion of the Chair witnesses will be invited to join the meeting when their input is required and to leave immediately afterwards
- It is not appropriate for a child/pupil to attend.
- Having ascertained the names of all those waiting outside the meeting room, start the meeting by agreeing with the committee who will be invited in to speak to the committee and in what order; at no time will the complainant, Headteacher or a witness be able to talk to committee members without both the complainant and Headteacher being present; these arrangements may have to be modified if one or more of the parties have absented themselves from the meeting.
- If witnesses are waiting, the Chair will try to ensure that they are called in due course if required or sent home early if it becomes apparent that they will not be seen.
- Once the main participants have joined the meeting, explain the proceedings.
- Begin to hear the complaint being firm about keeping to the agenda and reminding participants as necessary about the procedure, e.g. if interruptions occur.
- Bear in mind that all participants will be under stress; be even-handed in the treatment of all participants.

Explaining the proceedings

- Introduce the people round the table.
- Explain that the agenda will be followed.
- Run down the items briefly and let the participants know if they will be able to hear the decision at the end of the meeting.
- If the complaint is complex and there are some aspects of it that fall outside the committee's remit, clarify this and explain exactly which aspects of the complaint can be addressed by the committee; later, advise the complainant as to how best to follow up any complaint that could not be dealt with by the committee. Alternatively, the committee may wish to consider making representations to the responsible authority for those areas that fall outside its remit.
- Make it clear that although the meeting will be as informal as possible, it is intended to keep to the agenda to allow everyone to have a fair hearing.
- Explain that the complainant will speak without interruption and then allow the Headteacher and complaints committee members to ask any questions to clarify any issues raised; then the Headteacher's response will be heard, again without interruption and there will be an opportunity for the committee and the complainant to ask any questions about what has been said and so on.
- Indicate any time limits to adhere to.

Concluding the discussion

- It is important that all the participants feel that they have had every opportunity to be heard but if they are beginning to repeat themselves at the "further questions or points" stage, move the meeting on by proceeding to the summing up. The complainant and Headteacher will then be invited to sum up if they wish but if the issues are clear, formal summing up may not seem to be appropriate.
- Confirm the arrangements for the participants to receive the decision of the meeting.

- Write down the decision of the committee so this can be accurately recorded in the minutes.
- If the participants are invited back to hear the decision, make it clear to all parties that no further discussion is possible.

The decision letter and minutes

- The clerk to the Complaints Committee will send a copy of the decision letter to the complainant, Headteacher and Chair of Governors within 5 days.
- The clerk to the complaints committee will write the minutes and send them to the governing body clerk for distribution to the rest of the governing body; the minutes will record the procedure followed, the decision reached and any recommendations made.
- All documents relating to a complaint to be kept confidential.

After the meeting

The chair of the committee will receive a copy of the minutes for confirmation.

FORMAL COMPLAINT TO A SCHOOL'S GOVERNING BODY:

MODEL AGENDA

1. Apologies.
2. To consider members' declaration of interests, entitlement to vote and any requirements to withdraw from the meeting.
3. To confirm the order of the procedure.
4. To agree whether the decision will be conveyed orally to all parties at the end of the meeting (as well as in writing afterwards).
5. Invitation to complainant and Headteacher to join meeting and introduction to governors.
6. Introduction and explanation of procedure.
7. To note the role of the clerk at the meeting.
8. Complainant's presentation and witnesses and questions to both by Headteacher and/or governors.
9. Headteacher's response and witnesses and questions to both by complainant and/or governors.
10. Any further questions or points from any of the parties.
11. Opportunity for summing up by Headteacher.
12. Opportunity for summing up by complainant.
13. Summing up by the Chair.
14. Complainant and Headteacher leave meeting.
15. To decide on the complaint. The committee can
 - uphold the complaint in full
 - uphold it in part, or
 - dismiss it.
16. To consider whether and how to refer issues of principle or general practice to another forum, such as the governing body, or to an individual such as the Headteacher.

17. To inform the complainant and the Headteacher of the governing body's decision and further rights of representation (if agreed at 4 above).

18. Confidentiality: to consider whether any items are confidential and will therefore not be available to persons wishing to inspect governing body papers.

ANNEX A:

CONCERNS AND COMPLAINTS ABOUT SCHOOLS GUIDANCE NOTES FOR PARENTS

If you have a concern or complaint

We would like you to tell us about it. We welcome suggestions for improving our work in the school. Be assured that no matter what you are wanting to tell us, our support and respect for you and your child in the school will not be affected in any way. Please tell us of your concern as soon as possible. It is difficult for us to investigate properly an incident or problem which has happened some time ago.

What to do first

Most concerns can be sorted out quickly by speaking with your child's form tutor. If you have a concern which you feel will be looked at by the Headteacher in the first instance you can contact him/her straightaway if you prefer. It is best to discuss the problem face to face. You will need an appointment to do this, and can make one by ringing the school office. You are welcome to bring a friend or relation to the appointment with you if you would like to so that they can support you.

All staff will make every effort to resolve your problem informally. They will make sure that they understand what you feel went wrong, and they will explain their own actions to you. They will ask what you would like the school to do to put things right. Of course, this does not mean that in every case they will come round to your point of view but it will help both you and the school to understand both sides of the question. It may also help to prevent a similar problem arising again.

What to do next

If you are dissatisfied with the teacher's response (or with the Headteacher's initial reaction if they have already been involved) you can make a complaint to the Headteacher. This will be made in writing. Help with this is available from Mrs Baird our Pastoral Manager or Mrs Penny our Office Manager.

If your complaint is about an action of the Headteacher personally, then you should refer it to the Chair of Governors now. You can contact him/her via Mrs Gardner, Clerk to the governors via the school office.

You may also find it helpful at this stage to have a copy of the full statement of the General Complaints Procedure as this explains in detail what procedures are followed. This is available from the school office.

The Headteacher will ask to meet you for a discussion of the problem. Again you may bring a friend or someone else with you if you wish. The Headteacher will conduct a full investigation of the complaint and may interview any members of staff or pupils involved. You will receive a written response to your complaint.

If you are still unhappy

The problem will normally be solved by this stage. However, if you are still not satisfied you may wish to contact the Chair of the Governing Body to ask for referral of your complaint to the Complaints Committee of the governing body. It will then be heard by a group of three governors who have no previous knowledge of the problem and so will be able to give it a fresh assessment. You will be invited to attend and speak to the committee at a meeting which the Headteacher will also attend. The General Complaints Procedure statement explains how these meetings operate.

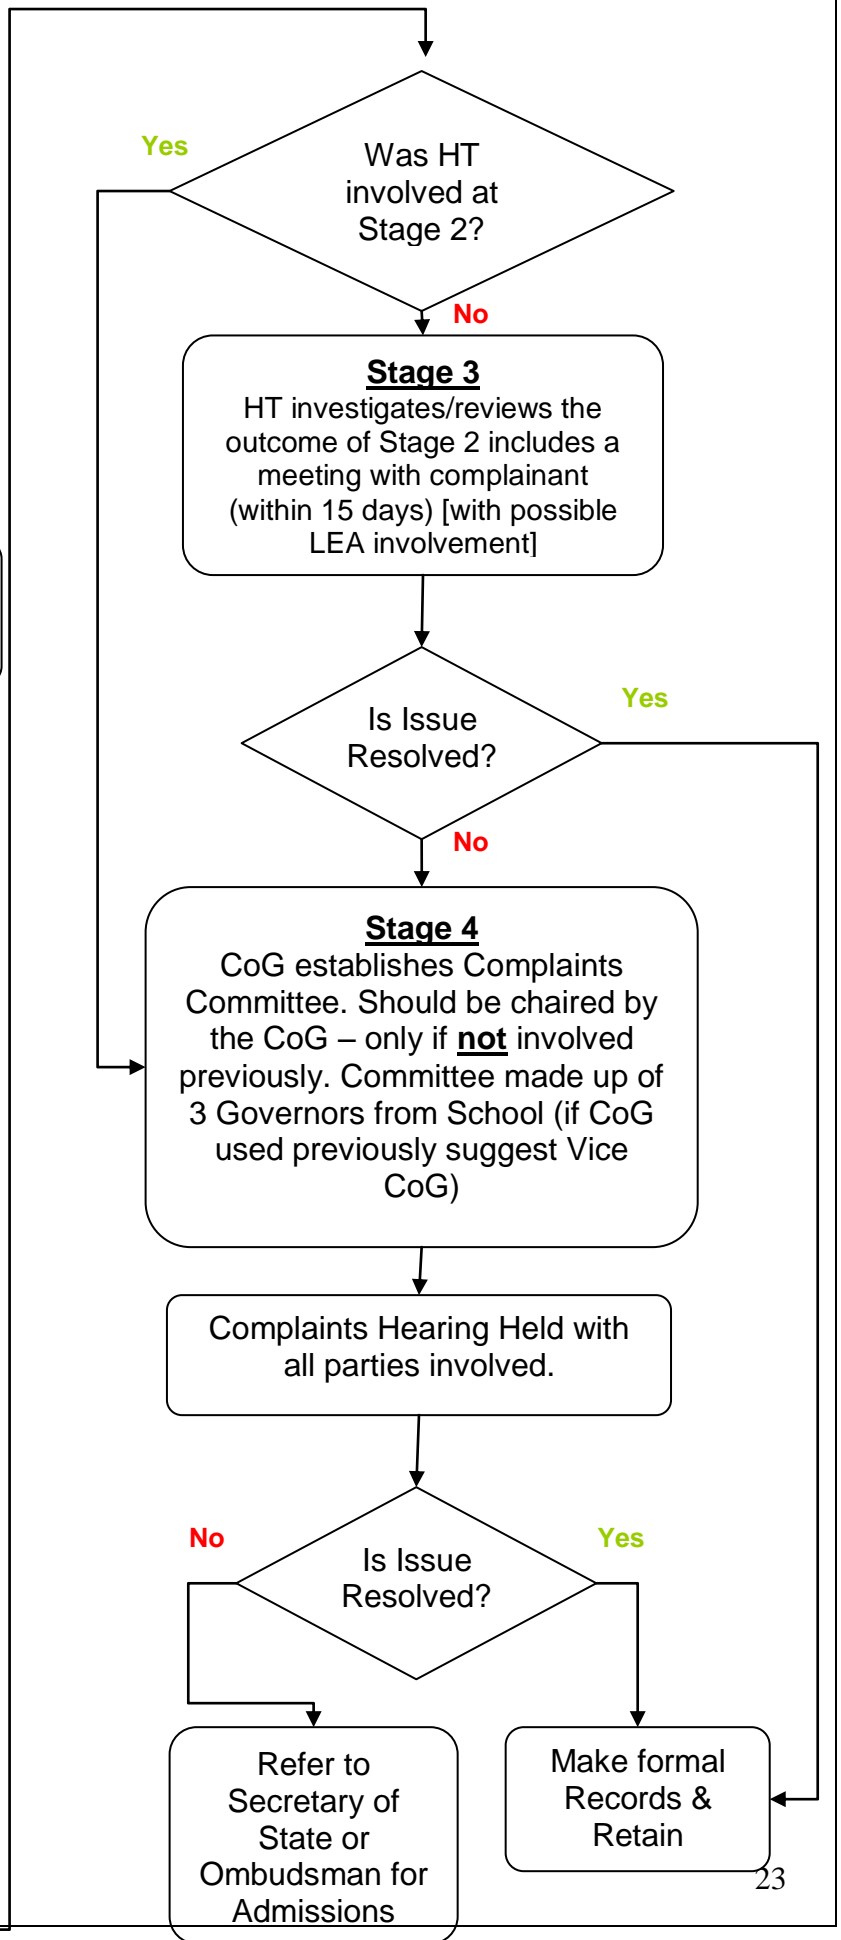

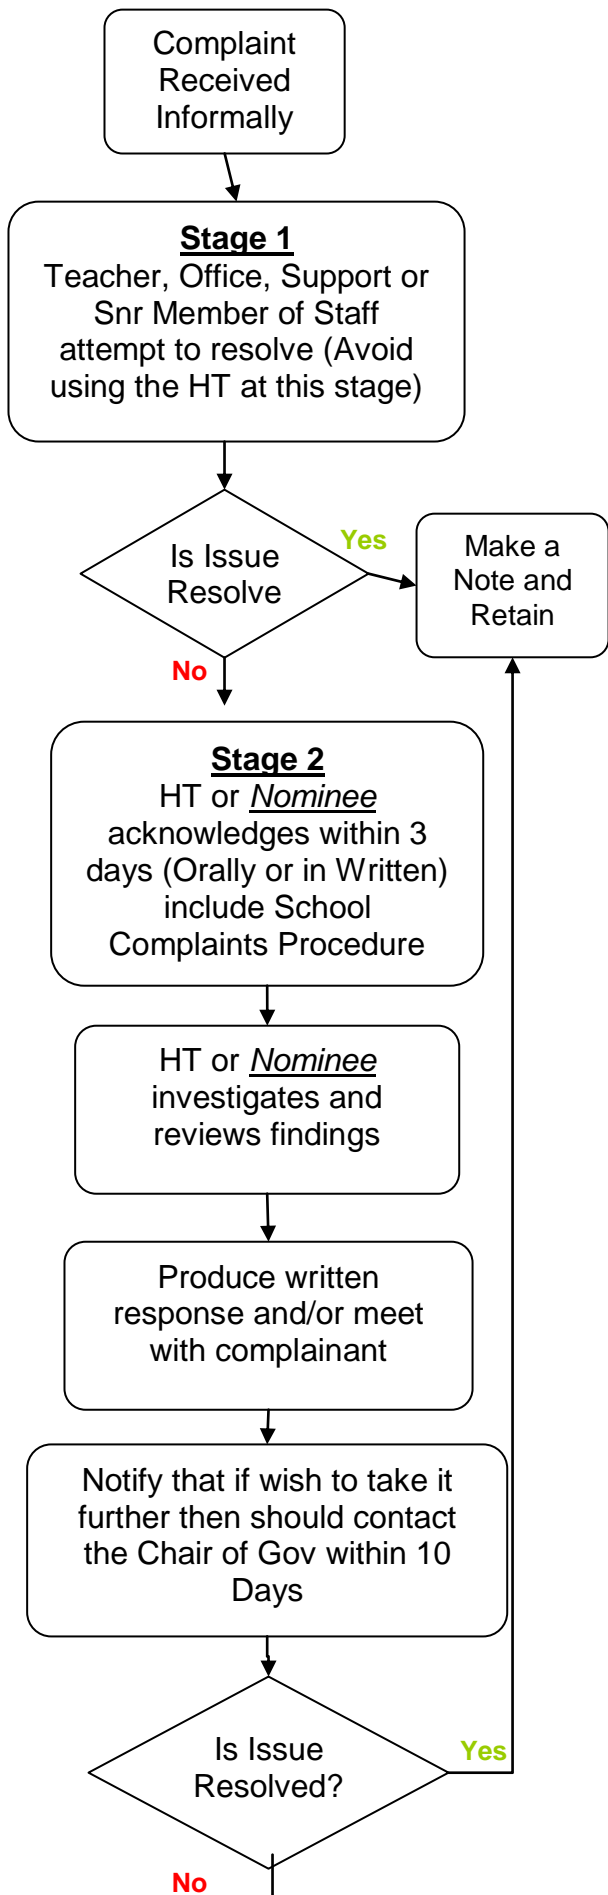

Further action

Complaints about school problems are almost always settled within schools but in exceptional cases it may be possible to refer the problem to the Secretary of State for Education. Again there is more information on this in the General Complaints Procedure.

Independent Advice

Parents and carers can receive independent advice from both the National Confederation of Parent Teacher Associations and the Advisory Centre for Education, 36 Nicholay Road, London, N19. Both organisations may offer advice but will not support individuals in pursuit of a complaint.
